

Structural Engineer

Duties/Responsibilities:

- Performing structural analysis and design of complex structures
- Coordinating engineering design work with designers, project managers, shop fabrication and field construction
- Providing technical support to project management, customers, general contractors and the design team

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree in civil, structural, or mechanical engineering
- Familiarity with AutoCAD or other computer graphics software
- Competency utilizing FEA structural design software (e.g. SAP 2000, STAAD Pro, etc.)
- Knowledge of design codes
- Ability to manage multiple tasks

Conservatek Industries, Inc. specializes in the design, manufacture, and construction of aluminum enclosures for use in the architectural, municipal and industrial marketplace. Typical applications include sports arenas, airport terminals, petroleum storage, water storage, wastewater treatment basins and bulk storage enclosures. Conservatek Industries, Inc. offers excellent benefits and a competitive salary. The Conservatek Industries, Inc. facility is located 30 miles north of downtown Houston, TX in Conroe TX.

You can obtain further information on our company, products, and services at www.conservatek.com. Please email or fax your information to Ms. LaRay Van Meter, Human Resources Manager at LVANMETER@conservatek.com or fax to 936-539-5355.